

You are cordially invited to the

Graduate Careers Seminar and Workshop

presented by the GGE Graduate Student Society to be held February 12th, 2014.

What: Seminar and forum on academic careers in research and teaching

When: 9:00 am to 12:00 pm

Where: Old Head Hall 214

What: Workshop on career planning and practical skills for seeking employment

When: 1:00 pm to 5:00 pm

Where: Head Hall - Room D124

9:00 am	Welcome and introduction by Weston Renoud
9:10 am	What can one expect from an academic career path at university? Dr. Marcelo Santos, GGE Professor and Current Chair
9:30 am	What are academic criteria for teaching in Canadian universities? Dr. David Coleman, GGE Professor and Dean of Eng.
9:50 am	What can one expect from a career with research institutes? Dr. Attila Komjathy, GGE Adjunct Professor, Principal Investigator and Senior Research at NASA's JPL
10:10 am	How and why should one pursue post-doctorate work? Dr. Edmund Biden, Dean of School of Graduate Studies
10:30 am	15 min. break , refreshments provided
10:45 am	Mediated Forum Dr. Peter Dare, GGE Associate Professor and Former Chair
12:00 pm	End of morning session
1:00pm to ~5:00 pm	Workshop with UNB Student Employment Services and Career Counselling